

WORLDLY WORDS ARE NOT FROM GOD

Copyright Matthew Verschuur. Originally published in The Protector, 22/8/2005.

People must conform to the Bible, not try and make the Bible unholy by making it like the world.

Some people speak of making the Bible “culturally relevant”, by changing it to conform to the sinful culture. “And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.” (1 John 5:19). There is no way that a Christian can be doing the right thing by being worldly. The world is lying in wickedness, so it is evident that people in the world must match up to the Bible, not try and bring the Bible down to their level.

Christ did not get drunk, swear or engage with prostitutes in order to reach the sinners. The Bible is a high standard, and anything contrary to it is wrong. “Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.” (1 John 3:4).

There are many people who seem to be religious, but who are living in sin. The real reason why most of them want to bring Christ and the Word down to the dung of the world, is because they really want to stay in their sins. “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.” (1 John 2:15).

There are books which claim to be modern versions of the Bible which contain unholy words and profanity. Putting swearing into the Bible is not a good witness and is actually blasphemy against God. The true Gospel is not about staying in the world, or being like the world, but is about being transformed, and entering God’s Kingdom.